

Foundation Fundraiser

The Foundation has secured another amazing collection of items!

In addition to purchasing tickets at this year's Eta State Convention, you may purchase them through the Donate Today button online. Be sure to note in the message area the items for which your ticket(s) are being purchased.

<http://www.ncdkgef.org/>

Three categories of tickets will be sold: $20, $10, $5.

Buy three $20 tickets for $55 and get two $5 tickets free!

Buy three $10 tickets for $25 and get one $5 ticket free!

Buy three $5 tickets for $10.

Raffle

Eta State Convention
May 3-5, 2019
Hickory, NC

$20 Tickets for a chance to win

- A miniature tea set with deep Northview Blue glaze, much sought after collectible made by Neolia Cole Womack and her sister Celia Cole Perkinson, daughters of Master Potter AR Cole. The Cole sisters were recipients of the 2002 NC Folk Heritage Award.
- Intricately beaded necklace and earrings set handmade by a Native American artisan from the Lumbee Tribe.
- A rice winnowing basket more than 100 years old.
- A pair of tickets for a Biltmore House tour in Asheville. Value
- A pair of tickets for the live performance of CATS at Blumenthal Performing Arts Center, Charlotte NC, August 17 @ 2:00 pm.

$10 Tickets for a chance to win

- DKG bird house
- Handmade barn quilt wood design
- Pottery piece by artisan Sarah Anne Eller
- Hand woven wall basket

$5 Tickets available for

- Metal garden hooks made by Mike Cowan,
Moonshiner Metalworks
- Additional items on display at convention

The NC DKG Educational Foundation, a 501(c)(3) organization