

FALL CYCLE, 2023 GRANT RECIPIENTS

FOUNDATION GRANTS

Teresa Stone	One Book, One School, One Community – purchase books for two school-wide reads that will provide each student with two books to take home to read with family and for scheduled community discussion of the books
Amy Barsanti	The Garden of Reading – construct an outdoor reading space that will be surrounded on three sides by garden boxes, allowing students to plant in the boxes when they achieve reading goals
Sara Mofford	Skeleton Man Class Set – purchase class set of the novel Skeleton Man to be used to teach suspense techniques, characterization highlight Native American culture, and other features
Lori Holguin	Visual Language Learning: Helping Multi-lingual Learners See the World – purchase 3-D camera to create a resource library for multi-lingual learners
Alicia Lyda	Newspapers in the Classroom – purchase three subscriptions to the local newspaper to be used in 11 th grade English class, art classes, and special education classes
Jordan Lupton	Cooking Up and Crafting Communication – purchase supplies to create communication, sensory, social and fine motor skills opportunities in Life Skills classes for EC pre-school students
Laura Stewart	Let's Grow – provide materials for planters, seed, etc. for elementary students to grow gardens
Lizbeth Alfero	Literacy for All Learners – increase library holdings in Bilingual/Spanish titles for growing bilingual student population to increase library visits
Gabrielle Wooley	Less Distraction, More Action – provide materials for sensory hallway for students to go through at any time to calm down
Meredith Fychok	Spreading the Love of Literacy – purchase materials to create a Little Free Library for get-one, leave-one in rural setting

Amanda Thompson	Graphic Novels to Increase Literacy – purchase novels for classroom library
Josh Ellis	Let's Read Together – create library of grade-level appropriate classroom novel sets for 5 th and 6 th grade students
Kim Ferrell	Taste of Tuttle – Upgrade library collection of cookbooks to introduce vocabulary and reading skills in a new way
Carol Anne Hankinson	Attend ALA Conference in San Diego
Kellen Rae Duncan	Attend Carolina TESOL (Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages)
CARLSON GRANT
Leah Sugg	Help with expenses of a field trip to Raleigh for 4 th graders
COPELAND GRANTS
Melissa Garwood	Writer's Workshop – purchase a writing curriculum to teach effective writing strategies
Kelly McCaslin	Engaging in Literacy to Build Strong Leaders – purchase materials and equipment for 2 nd graders to increase engagement in phonics/reading lessons
Allison Patton	Let's Make Reading Fun! – purchase materials and equipment for 3 rd graders to improve vocabulary and higher order thinking skills
Nicole Drum	Picture-Perfect Pre-Readers – purchase Board books for Pre-K students to increase early exposure to books and reading in a school with a high number of students receiving free pre-k
Suzanne Cadwallader	Versatility with Versatiles in Literacy – purchase Versatiles kits for 1 st grade students to practice reading skills in a screen-free alternative to traditional skills practice
Cheri Hudson	High School Helpers Making Middle School STEM Happen – purchase materials and equipment to reach more students with STEM, Robotics and Coding Clubs in conjunction with JROTC

McCALL GRANTS

Rosanna Limon-Reyes Sharing Culture for Community Impact – provide equipment and art supplies for multi-lingual students’ visual arts projects that showcase the culture they are from

Jean Graham Our Story is Worth Telling – cost of publishing books in order to furnish every student a book that each ESL student has written.